

Workforce Well-Being & Transformation

Legislative Framework:

- ✓ The Constitution of the Republic of South Africa - Section 195
- ✓ The Employment Equity Act No. 55 of 1998, as amended.
- ✓ The Public Service Act No. 103 of 1994, as amended.
- ✓ South Africa's ratification of ILO Convention 190.

Theme 3: Workforce Well-Being & Transformation

Sub- headings:

- a. Strengthen preventative measures and action campaigns within the public service by the PSCBC to allow for policy development on the issue in accordance with the ILO C190.
- b. Compliance with Employment Equity targets within the public service.
- c. Adequate provision of wellness programmes and psycho -social support services within the public service.
- d. Address societal inequalities and workforce demographics.

Theme 3: Workforce Well-Being & Transformation

a. Strengthen Preventative Measures and Action Campaigns within the Public Service by the PSCBC to Allow for Policy Development on the Issue in Accordance with the International Labour Organisation Convention 190 (ILO)

- ✓ The PSCBC to establish strategic collaboration with the ILO in identifying issues surrounding C190.
- ✓ The PSCBC, in collaboration with the Department of Public Service and Administration (DPSA) to collate data across the public sector, in checking whether national departments and provincial departments on policy implementation on the issue of violence and harassment in the workplace, inclusive of preventative policies.

Theme 3: Workforce Well-Being & Transformation

a. Strengthen Preventative Measures and Action Campaigns within the Public Service by the PSCBC to Allow for Policy Development on the Issue in Accordance with the International Labour Organisation Convention 190 (ILO)

- ✓ The PSCBC to further commission a research study in checking the readiness of national departments and provincial departments in addressing LGBTQI + concerns within the public sector in relation to the ILO C190.
- ✓ Data collation by the PSCBC to provide outcomes and recommendations in addressing the gaps to be filled in the public sector on the issue of policy development surrounding C190.

Theme 3: Workforce Well-Being & Transformation

a. Strengthen Preventative Measures and Action Campaigns within the Public Service by the PSCBC to Allow for Policy Development on the Issue in Accordance with the International Labour Organisation Convention 190 (ILO)...cont

- ✓ The PSCBC to forge stakeholder partnerships with Non- Government Organisations and activist groups in developing consistent action campaigns within the public service in creating awareness on the ILO C190.
- ✓ The PSCBC to continuously monitor government initiatives on the C190 as part of monitoring and evaluation and formulation of intervention strategies.

Theme 3: Workforce Well-Being & Transformation

b. Compliance with Employment Equity Targets within the Public Service.

- ✓ To implement the recommendations by the PSCBC Workstream 4 (women, youth & people with disabilities) in promoting fair representation of women, persons with disability and the youth in structures of Council, provincial chambers & governance structures.
- ✓ The PSCBC to encourage national and provincial departments to provide consistent reporting regarding employment equity plans and targets, as part of a legislative requirement.

Theme 3: Workforce Well-Being & Transformation

b. Compliance with Employment Equity Targets within the Public Service...cont

- ✓ Parties to the PSCBC to provide an overarching monitoring role in terms compliance by national and provincial departments, respectively regarding compliance with employment equity plans and targets.
- ✓ Parties in the PSCBC (inclusive of provincial chambers) to be capacitated on the importance of employment equity, planning and targets within the workplace but furthermore, on the legislative implications surrounding non-compliance by the public service.

Theme 3: Workforce Well-Being & Transformation

c. Adequate Provision of Wellness Programmes and Psychosocial Support Services within the Public Service.

- ✓ The PSCBC in collaboration with the DPSA to collate data on whether national and provincial departments have policies in place in the provision of overall wellness and psychosocial support programmes for employees.
- ✓ The PSCBC in collaboration with the DPSA to collate data on policy implementation in national and provincial departments.
- ✓ The PSCBC to continue with its work as per the recommendations that were provided as per Workstream 4, surrounding the provision of psychosocial support to employees in the public service.

Theme 3: Workforce Well-Being & Transformation

d. Address Societal Inequalities and Workforce Demographics

- ✓ The PSCBC to commission a research study on whether there is alignment with Human Resource planning and employment equity plan and targets in the public service (data driven research study).
- ✓ The PSCBC to ensure that the study to be commissioned addresses identification of underrepresentation in the workplace and the necessary interventions required in addressing the inequalities identified.
- ✓ Parties to the PSCBC to engage on the outcomes of the study in having a buy – in of negotiating a framework agreement or policy development in addressing the inequalities and workforce demographics within the public service.

Theme 3: Workforce Well-Being & Transformation

d. Address Societal Inequalities and Workforce Demographics

- ✓ The PSCBC to ensure that continuous engagements are encouraged with the collective bargaining structures of Council.
- ✓ The PSCBC to allow for continuous social dialogue (via platforms such as the 2026/27 public sector summit) within Council in addressing societal inequalities and workforce demographics as part of ensuring reform.
- ✓ In continuance of implementing the recommendations by the PSCBC Workstream 4, a one day summit should be convened for people with disabilities only, to identify their specific challenges and come up with recommendations/solutions.

